

Title: Adler Planetarium Special Program.

Presented by: Dr. Katie Boyce-Jacino

Special program with Dr. Katie Boyce-Jacino, Curator and Director of Collections to see Star Gazer's Pavillion, and time keeping devices in storage. Collections information is here:

<https://www.adlerplanetarium.org/explore/collections/>.

Dr. Katie Boyce-Jacino is the Curator and Director of Collections at the Adler Planetarium. She oversees the museum's collections of artifacts, rare books, archives, and modern library. Her research focuses on the cultural history of astronomy in the twentieth century, with a particular interest in the history of planetariums and other public astronomy institutions. Her dissertation was on the history of planetariums in Germany. She earned her B.A. in History and Astronomy from Wesleyan University and her Ph.D. in Intellectual History from Johns Hopkins University.